THE WAR NEWS.

The glorious victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio. and Indiana, for the Union cause, have for the time carried public feeling away from the progress of the war temporarily. Yet our armies are doing well in every department, and now that the smoke of the battle in the North is clearing away, we can take a calm look at the position of military affairs.

The Armies of the Potomac and James, having gained temporary victories, hold their ground most persistently and bravely, while a great movement is being organized in which the moral and physical strength or both armies will be tested, and that very shortly. Assured of the victory before, our soldiers will be doubly encouraged in the strife when they know that they have been so nobly supported at home.

General SHERIDAN has been the most successful man for the past and present month. His army is resting and reorganizing, after its glorious labors in the valley, in the vicinity of Strasburg, from which beautiful region it will soon move to new victories of greater importance than those already gained. We give some further details to-day of the triumph of General TORBURY over the Rebel cavalry in the valley the other day. Such defeats cannot fall to use up the little remaining morale of the Rebel army. It is very poor stuff now, and, as General Hood says, his soldiers straggle horribly, and that the officers do not try to prevent it. He says that they do not straggle from the line of march because they are worn out, but because they want to plunder the houses of those high-spirited Southern farmers who made the war.

The Savannah Republican says that Hoop's army was more dreaded by the Southern people than SHERMAN's army. Is not this a very dangerous admission? Hitherto Southeen journals have only declared that the South was a united people in arms against the Yankees. How will Europe now open its eyes to hear, on good Southern authority, that the people of a great Southern State dread less the presence of a Northern army than of the army that is to set them free from Yankee ready to give the last dollar for the Rebel is ground for doom and despondency.

But worse than all is the blow levelled by the Richmond Enguirer at the fallen Rebel army of the valley. The Enquirer says that SECRIDAN owes his victories to the fact that the valley "is running with apple brandy." All the Rebel army was drunk-officers, men, "ploneers, and all"-" too drunk to command themselves, much less an army, a divialon, a brigade, or a regiment." This includes EARLY, GORDON, RHODES, ROSSER, RAM-BEUR-everybody. Well, how long will it be now before this drunken crowd destroys SHERIDAN? Will the Enquirer tell us? And will the Republican let us know on what day next week Hoon's mob of strugglers is to annihilate SHERMAN?

General Forager has been whisped everywhere in Tennessee. He has retreated and his wagon train has been captured. Parca is trying to get away, too, but he will find himself caged in his beloved State. He says he has come to Missouri this time "to stay." The very same observation was made by Fou-BEST some weeks ago, when he entered Tennessee with sixteen thousand men. "I have come north of the Tennessee river to stay," he remarked to one of our officers who had an interview with him. He did stay-but not long. When ROUSEEAU got after him, he docamped out of Tennessee, and considered himself very fortunate to get away. We espect an attempt at the repetition of the same manquire on the part of PRICE, when ROSECHANS gets his forces fairly in motion against him; but we hope "Rasy" will compel old PRICE to stay. From New Orleans we are informed of an expedition which General Assort is reported to have recently made into the interior of Florida. It is stated that on the 23d of last month he reached Euchee Anna Court House, in Walton county, which he captured, together with twenty prisoners, including a colonel and lieutenant-colonel, and a large number of horses, mules, cattle, and boats. At last accounts General ASBOTH was at Marianna, in Jackson county, which is in the northern part of the State, and borders on both Georgia and Alabama. This story wears a rather doubtful aspect, as we have despatches from Key West, Fla., dated as late as the 3d instant, which make no mention of any such expedition.

DOCTOR HAMMOND CALLED IN TO A DYING PATIENT.

The select corps of advocates of McCLEL LAN's election has received a fresh accession in the person of Dr. HAMMOND, the late Sur geon-General of the United States. The Age this morning spreads before its readers, with eager commendation, the following tissue of mean falsehoods :-

"The Wounded Soldier Not Good Enough for the White House.

"LINCOLN AND STANTON REPUSE A ROOF TO THE

When the application reached the "Secretary, he sent for me, and I was again the "secretary, he sent for me, and I was again the "secretary, he sent for me, and I was again the "secretary, he sent for me, and I was again the "secretary, he sent for me, and I was necessary. The Heat Resources was next for and

"Let every Democrate out this not and send it in his letter to his son, brother, friend, or common in the army i Certainly the worst enemies of Jr. HAM-MOND could hardly advise him to a worse course than to attempt to restore his own character by blackening the good name of others. The history of his court-martial and the unanimous verdlet of his brother officers are too fresh in the public mind to gain for his opinion any especial consideration. He will full in a tempting to curry favor with the Democrats, for he was known to General Mo-CLELLAN as a personal enemy during his control of the medical bureau.

The "startling disclosure" over which the Age gioats, coming from the man who at that very time was conniving with contractors for the supply to our sick and dying soldlers of worthless medicines and unwholesome nourishment, will hardly receive much credit at the hands of "sons, brothers, friends, and comrades" of Democrats in the army. It is needless to deny its falsehoods in detail. They are so apparent that every soldier and every Democrat, not wilfully blind, can detect them for himself.

In the first place the Secretary of War has no control whatever of either the Capitol or the White House-the first being in charge of the officers of Congress and the Commissioner of Public Buildings, and the other being the private dwelling and office (always occupied by Secretaries and thronged with citizens on public business) of the President of the United States, with apartments insufficient in size for the civil functions of the Chief Magistrate, and utterly unfit for hospital purposes. It is also well known that the Capitol has been used as a temporary barracks for soldiers on frequent occasions, without anybody's consent or anybody's objection.

Dr. HAMMOND has forgotten that at the very time of which he speaks, there were hundreds of palatial mansions in Washington occupied by bitter secessionists, which would have answered far better for hospitals for the the victims of Frez John Pohrka's misconduct, than Mr. Lincoln's dwelling and executive office.

No one can fail to guess what would be the fate of the ex-Surgeon-General if he should show himself within any military camp or hospital; and we fully believe that similar treatment will be bestowed on his vulgar assault upon his superiors, whose only mistake has been that they did not make an example of so unworthy a public officer.

THE PRUISS OF OUR VICTORIES. The efforts made by the Democratic leaders to create the impression that public sentiment has changed with regard to the great principles upon which the Government is waging the war against rebels and traitors, would be ludicrous if they did not compel respect by their despair. The powerful party machinery which has brought every vote to the polls, is only paralleled by the ingenious though more delicate system of so manipulating the returns and befogging the issues as to lead a few timid rule! Are the Georgia farmers no longer folks of the better sort to believe that there

On the contrary, the result in the three great States is not only a victory, but it is an overwhelming avalanche of triumph. All the cheers from copper-lined throats, though Chesnut street were packed from the Age office to the McClellan headquarters, cannot alter the issue that we have gained in the three States twenty-five representatives in the next Congress. And all the big type and hold headings in the Age and World offices cannot blot out the fact that Pennsylvania. Ohio, and Indiana are sure for Lincoln and JOHNSON in November, together with every other State except New Jersey.

THE WORK BEFORE THE PRIENDS OF

THE UNION. By a singularly fortunate provision the peoole of Pennsylvania are enabled to obtain a legitimate estimate of political opinion a month in advance of the Presidential election. This information is now in possession of the public. It is encouraging in the highest degree to the friends of the Union and the Govermnent, and to an equal excent is disheartening to the worshippers of the Chicago platform. This is apparent through the flimsy disguise of big type and whistling editorials in the Age, and through the forced smiles of the sleek leaders and orators who tread for a brief hour the stage of the Continental Congert

Saloon. Enough likewise is known to demand from this time forth the most unceasing and anselfish labors from every man who feels that the currender of the Government into the hand of the Copperheads will be a death-blow to the cause of civil liberty on this continent. We therefore say to every lover of his country, to every true Democrat, and to every American who loathes foreign interference with our liberties and our institutions, to give up everything else from now until the 8th of November, and bestow time, and energy, and means towards the election of Annamam LINCOLN.

Lay aside all personal feeling and private griefs. Sink all minor causes of objection in the paramount cause of the nation. Organize in your townships and districtsyour wards and precincts. Mingle with your neighbors, persuade your friends. Encourage the faint-hearted and confirm the strong. These are the great duties of the hour and beside them all other claims and responsibilities fade into nothing.

-Lord John Russell endeavored to persuade Lord Langdale to resign the permanent Master-ship of the Rolls for the uncertain position of Lord Chancellor, and paid the learned Lord some very high compiments. "It is useless talking, my Lord," said Langdale; "as long as I enjoy the Rolls, I care nothing for your butter. -After dinner the other evening poor old Lady —After dinner the other evening poor old Lady milited to Governor Vates, of Illinois:

Union Prisoners in Texas. Dr. G. A. Biske, agent of the United States Sanitary Commission at New Orleans, under date of September 28, 1864, writes :- "General Canby has ordered the quartermasters to forward to our prisoners in Texas clothing and medicines. Our commissioner has arranged with Major Ignatins Szymanski, Commissioner of Exchange for the Rebels in the Trans-Mississippi Department, an exchange for three thousand four hundred and fifty of our soldiers now in Catap Ford, in-cluding naval prisoners. Possibly the number may be reduced, and the naval prisoners be obliged to remain at Camp Ford.

WHAT THE PHESS SAYS.

From among the incumerable, and we must say kindly opinions given by the Fress throughout the country, in reverence to one plattine, we extract the following as an evidence of its mett.

The Great Platte, so long in preparation of the Naw York Central Parts, is said to be nearly completed. Thousands of people are waiting anticularly to see it, as it is expected to be a magnificent piece of art. Time, takent, and morey having been recyl savined also it to do justice to the great subject it illustrates.— Statesman, New York.

Marrat's Central Pairs — The provietors of Martel's Great Picture of the New York Central Park amendmenthat the work is rapidly speciesching contribution. It is simulated with the picture will create quite a emastion, as much which they and an immense sun of money have been sagn ended on it, and as the subject is one of national as well as local interest. Cross, New York.

ANATHER BENEATON.—All New York is just now or the too toget a sight at "Marist's Great Picture of the Central Park," which has been so tong to proparation. It is premised soon, and will us doubt, be a grand affair and one of universal interest.—Boston Fast.

A picture of the Central rark, by Martel, is seen to be reproduced in chroimo-librograph, increased a haif by four anis a half foot in size. It represents the Fork of a June affectsoon, when the band is playing, the coolectral grounds crowded by visitors, the lane enlivered with boats, and the whole a one presented under the most attractive superts. It is expected that the picture will sell-largely in Rugiand as well as in this country.—Evening Post, N. F.

We cannot do otherwise than refer factiontally to Martel's Great ficture of the Control rark, which will some to bound by the publishers. Measure Street Harris & Co., at No. 789 breakers. It will probably be use of the creations of the day, and will have a large sain.—North tractions, Philadelphia. There is no doubt that the forthcoming Martel's Picture of the Central Park, which is to be published by Mea re. Stwell Harris & One, No. 75; Broadway, will be one of the most popular works of set of the limb. - E-raing Rep. of New York.
